

PHOENIX TN SEMINAR Patients as a social and political category

Friday, November 28th 2008

Organizer: Anita Magowska
The Chair and Department of the History of Medical Sciences
ul. Bukowska 70
60-812 Poznań
tel. +48 61 854 72 42/3
fax. +48 61 851 85 11
anitamagowska@yahoo.com

Place:
Medical University
Collegium Maius
ul. Fredry 10, 61-701 Poznań,
Conference Room (1st floor)

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 28th, 2008

9.15: Welcome

9.30-10.00: Introduction

SESSION 1: CHANGING CONCEPTS OF PATIENTS

10.00-10.30: Fritz Dross (University of Erlangen)
Leprosy as a social category. The Nurmberg "Sondersiechenalmosen" in 15th and 16th centuries

10.30-11.00: John Chircop (University of Malta)
Disfigured bodies, stigmatized souls, angels of charity: An ambiguous taxonomy, conception and treatment of the disabled poor. 1780-1870

11.00-11.30: Sidsel Eriksen (University of Copenhagen)
Patient, client or criminal? The social and political context for the changing treatment systems of alcoholics in Denmark 1900-2000

11.30-11.45: COFEE BREAK

11.45-12.15: Philip Rieder (University of Geneva)

The patient as an actor: Social, moral and political issues concerning patients in Geneva (1750-1920)

12.15-12.45: Eva Krizova (Charles University, Praha)

Change in the concept of patient in the Czech Republic after the Velvet Revolution – good will is not enough

12.45-14.15: LUNCH

SESSION 2: BORDERS OF RESPONSIBILITY FOR PATIENTS

14.15-14.45: Hormoz Ebrahimnejad (University of Southampton)

Concept and status of patient in nineteenth-century Iran

14.45-15.15: Pilar Leon Sanz (University of Navarra)

The mutual benefit societies' responses to the 1918-19 influenza pandemic in Pamplona

15.15-15.45: Maria-Isabel Porrás-Gallo (University of Castilla-La Mancha)

Children's hospitals as means to reduce infant mortality and to modernize Franco's Spain

15.45-16.00: Cofee-break

16.00-16.30: Antonina Ostrowska (Polish Academy of Sciences, Warsaw)

Doctor-patients interactions in Europe. Some results of a comparative study

16.30-17.00: Adina Rebeleanu (Babes-Bolyai University)

Quality of medical care, rights of patients – theory vs practicalities

17.00-17.30: Kinga Lampek (University of Pecs)

Who is the patient?

17.30-18.00 Anita Magowska (Medical University, Poznań)

War victims as a special category of patients in twentieth-century Poland

SATURDAY

9.00-13.00

A trip to the Castle in Kórnik (sponsored by the Medical University in Poznań)